CALSLA conferences are presented at no cost to employees of California cities, counties and special districts, and with Associate Members, including JPAs, vendors and service providers to local government. The conferences provide an excellent opportunity for networking and discussion of issues related to street lights and traffic signals. Attendance is limited, coffee service and lunch are provided, and registration is on a first come, first served basis. Registrants will receive detailed agendas. Discussion topics include:

- Utility Actions and Rate and Tariff Changes in 2018 and 2019. Learn more with CALSLA's detailed updates on rate cases with Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E), Southern California Edison (SCE) and San Diego Gas & Electric (SDG&E), including legal updates on liability and acquisition issues.
- PG&E's Chapter 11 Bankruptcy – Implications for Street Lighting.
- What can you do with an adaptively controlled street light? Can you thwart theft, damage, inappropriate use of your vertical infrastructure? Hear from your colleagues and vendors about what adaptively controlled street light infrastructure can do in your and for your jurisdiction and your operations, and how to protect infrastructure assets from misuse.
- What If and What Next? What's next in designing, educating the public and operating/maintaining your Vertical Infrastructure? What will "5G" and small cell attachments really look like, and how will the process work in your community? Learn about advancements in street light related design, innovation and technology.

Please forward this announcement to the appropriate persons in your agency or firm, and make your reservation on or before Thursday, April 25, 2019 for Southern California, and by Thursday, May 2, 2019 for Northern California by calling or emailing Irene Emma, County of Marin Public Works Department at (415) 473-6523 or iemma@marincounty.org.
